Pruhs has three dogs chasing £8,000

SPALDING trainer David Pruhs has three hopefuls in action in tonight's semi-finals of the £8,000 Belford Eclipse at Nottingham.

All three ran in the same heat in Monday's opening round and produced a one-two-three for Pruhs, who also saw Emmas Prince win the Sprint Trophy.

Bawnfure Mel made it six wins from nine starts over course and distance (500m) on Monday with Judicial Force and Giddyup Boy following him home, Giddyup Boy goes in the second semi-final tonight with Pruhs' other pair in the third and final semi.
