

light-welterweight title in Las Vegas in the early hours of the following tances. You have to be quick out of the blocks in a three-round fight and Cello proved he's not a slow starter

500 points decision to former WBU world champion Gary Lockett and has also shared a ring with Carl Froch, who fights for the WBC super-

"I thought Cello boxed very well. I told him after the first round to just stick to his boxing and that's what he did."

Callum strikes gold

THERE were trophies galore for members of Ian Parker's Tang Soo Do Club (right) based at Wallon when they took part in the Karate Training Black Belt Federation British Championships in Leicester.

Six year-old Callum Dallday was the youngest to taste success, winning the Tiny Tots sparring category, while at the other end of the age scale 42 year-old Andy White came out on top in the Black Belt Open forms section. Top three placings went to the following:
 Shannon Parker - 2nd musical forms (12-15)
 Luke Clemenson - 3rd forms (Under 16)
 Hannah Graham - 3rd forms (Under 16)
 Holly White - 2nd forms (Under 16)

- 16). Braiden Wilson - 3rd forms (8-10 year-olds)
- Andy White - 1st forms (Black Belt Open)
- Kevin Woodward - 2nd forms (Black Belt Open)
- Shannon Skingley - 2nd fighting (8-10 year-olds)
- Shaun Parker - 3rd fighting (12-15 year-olds)
- Pete Bloomfield - 2nd fighting (Mens Middleweight)
- Luke Clemenson - 3rd fighting (Under 16)
- Callum Dallday - 1st sparring (Tiny Tots)
- Chris Green - 2nd fighting (Under 16)
- Chris Green - 3rd fighting (Mens)
- Dillon Wilson - 3rd sparring (12-14 year-olds)
- Jack Hogg - 3rd sparring (Under 8)
- Kieron Gale - 1st sparring (12-15 year-olds)
- Leah Stone - 2nd sparring (under 8)
- Callum Boyes - 2nd sparring (Tiny Tots)
- Ray Boyes - 2nd sparring (Mens)
- Callum Egan - 2nd sparring (Tiny Tots)

